MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Plans and Review Staff

SUBJECT : Age as a Factor in Attrition.

1. An analysis of the possible effect of age at EOD on length of service of female employees appears to disprove the assumption which prompted the study.

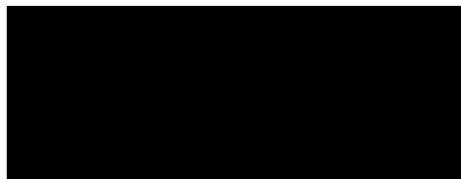

2. Between 1 January 1957 and 31 May 1962, [REDACTED] age 17 to 25 entered on duty. As of the end of that period (31 May 62), [REDACTED] More detailed analysis by age at EOD and numbers still on duty after given lengths of time showed no statistically reliable difference among categories. To illustrate-- of those who EOD'd in 1957, 24% were still on duty in May 1962; and [REDACTED]
